Numb. 1728

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 8. to Monday June 12. 1682.

Vienna, May 31.

COunt Lobcowits has Orders to return forthwith to the Court of Bavaria, to take care of the Emperors Intereſt there; and we are aſſured that Directions have been ſent to the Imperial Ambaſſadors at Francfort, to declare to thoſe of France, that his Imperial Majeſty cannot conſent to the Diſmembring of the Empire, and that he looks upon himſelf as obliged to endeavour the Reſtitution of Strasburg, and other Places which the French have poſſeſſed themſelves of ſince the Peace of Nimeguen. We are certainly informed, that the Imperial Troops are on their March towards the Rhine, making a Body of about 16000 Men. Count Waldeck, General of the Forces of the Empire, is on his departure from hence for Germany, as is likewiſe General Leſlie. It is ſaid, that Commiſſions will be given out in few days, for the Raiſing four Regiments of Foot more, two of Dragoons, and two of Croats. We have advice of Count Caprara's arrival at Conſtantinople, but that he had not yet ſeen the Grand Vizier.

Strasburg, June 5. Prince William of Furſtemberg arrived here two days ſince; and on Teuſday next the Chapter is to meet, in order to the Election of a Biſhop, at which the Baron de Monclar, the French Kings Lieutenant General in Alſace, is to aſſiſt. The French intend to have a Camp near Haguenaw, and another on the other ſide of the Rhine, near Fribourg; and their Troops are accordingly on their March.

Cologne, June 5. Monſieur Tambonneau, the French Envoy, having by a Memorial, deſired of our Magiſtrates, that they would direct their Deputy at Francfort, to give his Vote for the accepting the Propoſition made there by the Ambaſſadors of France; they have anſwered, That they will have all poſſible regard to the deſires of his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, if it may be without offending the Emperor, in whoſe Intereſts they are reſolved to remain firm for the future, as they have been for the time paſt. Our Letters from Lorraine, of the 1ſt Inſtant, tell us, That the French Troops are on their March, in order to the forming a Body of 20000 Men, in the Neighborhood of Metz. And from Francfort, they tell us, That the Emperor had reſolved to put ſtrong Gariſons into the four Foreſt-Towns; and that in order thereunto, the Imperial Troops were on their March.

Cologne, June 9. We are every day expecting the arrival of the Troops of Weſtphalia, for whom our Magiſtrates have provided Quarters. We have advice, that the French are paſſing the Meuſe at Dinant, and that they are to March towards the Rhine. Monſieur Tambonneau, not being ſatisfied with the Anſwer of our Magiſtrates, is it's ſaid, about leaving this Place, having already diſpoſed of ſome of his Horſes.

Hamburg, June 9. What was reported on Sunday laſt, of the King of Denmark's arrival at Altena, was a miſtake, his Majeſty is as yet at Itzehoe, whither he went the laſt Week from Gluckſtadt, but it is believed that his Majeſty will be at Altena in few days, to meet the Elector of Brandenburg, who, according to our advices, will be at Bergerdorf on Friday next, and thither our Magiſtrates have reſolved to ſend Deputies to Complement his Electoral Highneſs, upon his Arrival in theſe parts.

Bruſſels, June 12. Two days ſince arrived here Monſieur de Bois David, being ſent by the Duke of Zell, to the Marquiſs de Grana; he made no ſtay here, but went forward with Prince Vaudemont, to find his Excellency in Flanders, who is expected back here to Morrow, or on Sunday at fartheſt. Yeſterday arrived the Spaniſh Ordinary, by which, and the former, his Excellency has received Four hundred thouſand Crowns, with a promiſe of a far greater Supply, upon the arrival of the Galions. Our Letters from Vienna, give an account, that the Emperors Troops are more numerous, and in a better Condition than they have been for many Years paſt; that part of them are upon their March towards the Rhine; and that the Duke of Lorrain was ſo well recovered, that he intended to follow the Army in 10 or 12 days.

Hague, June 12. The 10th Inſtant, the Deputies of the States of Holland, and the Sieur Van Sommerdyke, and the Sieur Cabeljauw, had a long Conference concerning the Iſland of Tobago, upon the Propoſals that have been made for the ſetling of that Colony. Our Northern Letters tell us, that the King of Sweden will aſſiſt the Emperor and the Empire, if he be not diverted by the King of Denmark, and the Elector of Brandenburg, who it's not doubted are in the Intereſts of France.

Marſeilles, June 9. It has been reported here theſe two or three days, that Monſieur du Queſne was upon the Coaſt, with the Ships under his Command from the Levant, ſo that we judge he may be ere this at Thoulon; he will quickly be at Sea again with the Fleet he is to Command, which is to Rendevouz at Port Mahon, and will conſiſt, as is ſaid, of 20 Men of War, (fitted out at Thoulon, as well as at Breſt, and Rochelle) and 20 Galleys, beſides Galiotes, Fireſhips, Victuallers, &c. There are various reports concerning the Deſign they are to be employed in; but that which is generally believed, is, that they are intended againſt the Algerines. Two or three days ſince, arrived here a Bark from Smirna, from whence we have an account, that the Engliſh Ambaſſador at Conſtantinople, had accommodated the Matter concerning the extraordinary Duty upon Silk, for 50000 Dollars, and that the Engliſh were not to pay that Duty for the future. That the Grand Viſier did demand 350 thouſand Dollars of the French, for Monſieur du Queſne's action at Scio; and till that was paid, he would neither give the French Ambaſſador Audience on the Sofa, nor would ſuffer him, or any of his Family to depart from Conſtantinople, though Monſieur du Queſne had ſent in two Men of War to demand the one or the other. An Embargo is laid upon all Veſſels here in Port, bound for the Levant, and all Commerce is forbid with any part of Turkey.

Windſor, June 9. His Majeſty received the following Addreſſes, with his wonted Grace and Goodneſs.

To the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of Your Majeſties moſt Loyal Subjects, the Seamen of this Your Majeſties Kingdom of England:

Sheweth,

THat the Acceptance Your Majeſty was pleaſed to allow to the Dutiful Acknowledgments we lately preſumed to tender You, upon Your Gracious Declaration, in maintenance of the Eſtabliſhed Religion, and Laws of this Your Realm, incourages us to lay before Your Majeſty in no leſs ſolemn manner, our Reſentments of that Impiety and Ingratitude wherewith Your conſtant and unexampled Clemency has been anſwered by ſome, whoſe Rebellious Principles (emboldned by impunity) have tranſported them to the deſigning (at once) the deſtruction of Your Royal Perſon and Prerogative, the Liberties and Lives of Your People, and the total Subverſion both of Church and State, in that deteſtable Model of Aſſociation lately produced (upon Oath) out of the Cloſet of the Earl of Shaftsbury.

Which Aſſociation, and every other League, Covenant, and Engagement, tending to the diminution of Your Majeſties juſt Prerogative, or the Excluſion of Your Legal Succeſſor, we do hereby firmly Renounce and Abhor, and ſhall ever with the expence of our Lives ſtedfaſtly oppoſe; begging Your Majeſty (in all humility) to reſt aſſured, that, after having (under the Conduct and Loyal Example of Your Royal Brother) ſo long ſerved Your Majeſty in the defence of Your Rightful Dominion at Sea, we ſhall never fail of aſſerting it with equal Allegiance and Reſolution in its full extent at Land; nor, after oppoſing the moſt Hoſtile Attempts of powerful Princes from abroad, ever ſubmit the Right and Dignity of Your Majeſties Crown, or our own Liberties, to Invaſion from our Fellow-Subjects at home.

With which Proteſtation, moſt Zealouſly recommending to the Protection of Almighty God Your Sacred Perſon, Government, and Royal Succeſſion in its Right Line, We are,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

Your Majeſties moſt Obedient, and ever Loyal Subjects and Servants, the Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants of the Trinity-Houſe of Deptford-Strond, being the Body Corporate of the Seamen of England.

To the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jurors for the Body of the County of Carmarthen, at the Quarter-Seſſions held at the Guild-Hall of the ſaid County upon the Twenty fifth of April, 1682.

Dread Sovereign,

HAving formerly preſumed to approach Your Royal Preſence with an humble Addreſs for the evincing of our conſtant Loyalty, and the aſſerting of our Obedience to Your Majeſties Laws and Government; Permit us yet, moſt Gracious Sir, by this repeated Teſt many of our Allegiance, with all imaginable ſincerity and ſubmiſſion, in the ſimplicity of our Hearts, to Witneſs to Almighty God, to Your Majeſty, and the whole World, our juſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of that Curſed Aſſociation produced at the Proceedings againſt the Earl of Shaftsbury in the Old-Baily. Our Prayers are for Your Majeſties long Life and happy Reign, and our Vows and Reſolutions are with our Lives and Fortunes for the Defence of Your Majeſties Royal Perſon and Government, Your Heirs and Lawful Succeſſors, according to the Duty of our Allegiance. In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto Subſcribed our Names.

To the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of Your Majeſties Loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury for the County of Pembroke, at the Great Seſſions holden for that County in Haverford-Weſt, the 17th day of April, in the Four and thirtieth year of Your Majeſties Reign, Anno Dom. 1682.

AMidſt the Importunities of Petitions on the one hand, and of Addreſſes on the other, we have hitherto adjudged it becoming the Duty of Subjects to be ſilent, and rather by our Petitions and Addreſſes to Almighty God in Prayer to implore his Divine Protection upon Your Majeſties Sacred Perſon and Counſels, than to interpoſe our raſh Conceptions in things above us: We cannot but ſtand amazed at the Licentiouſneſs of ſome prophane Libels and Pamphlets, and likewiſe at an horrid Aſſociation (of a deeper dye than the holy League of France, or the Scotch Covenant) which in Oppoſition to the Laws of God, the Laws of the Land, and the Example of Primitive Chriſtianity, would at one inſtant by an Inhumanity more than Savage, root up and ſubvert Your Majeſties Perſon, with all the Royal Line, the Succeſſion of our Kings, and the very Eſſence of our Monarchy; whilſt amidſt our Confuſions, that Popery we have ſo much juſtly feared, would not fail to break in upon us.

This, Dread Sir, has awakened us to reflect more deliberately upon that Bloody Hiſtory of the late Rebellion, carried on by Ambition and Enthuſiaſm, in which many well-meaning, unwary Men, infatuated by the Canting Declarations, and gilded Promiſes of thoſe Times, were unfortunately involved to the Ruine of the beſt of Kings, the pureſt of Churches, and the moſt equal of Governments; And we do believe that the deſign of this Traiterous Aſſociation was to bring us back into the ſame Miſeries and Calamities.

Permit us therefore, moſt Gracious Sovereign, with this Loyal, though late Addreſs, to lay our ſelves humbly at Your Majeſties Feet, to bleſs God for Your Majeſties health, (which God long continue) for Your gentle Government, and for Your conſtancy in the True Proteſtant Religion Eſtabliſhed by Law: And to render to Your Majeſty our moſt ſubmiſſive and endeared Acknowledgments, for Your Majeſties particular Care to this County in the Excluſion of Iriſh Cattle: And to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we, with our Lives and Fortunes, with Loyal and reſolved Hearts and Hands, will ſtand by Your Majeſty and Your Lawful Succeſſors to the utmoſt, without reſerve or limitation, againſt all Your Enemies Domeſtick and Foreign; And God grant Your Majeſty a long, a gracious, and a proſperous Reign over us.

We the High-Sheriff, and other the Juſtices of the Peace and Gentlemen of this Your Majeſties County of Pembroke, do in all things Concur and Agree with the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury in this Abhorrence and Addreſs.

To

To the Kings most Excellent Majstey.

The Humble Addres of Your Majesties Loyal Sub- the Grand Jury for the Town and County of Haverford-West, at the Great Sessions holden for the said Town and County, the Seventeenth day of April, in the Four and thirtieth Year of Your Majesties Reign.

WE Your Majesties Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, prompted by that Religion and Obedience which preserves Kingdoms, by fearing God and honouring their Soveraign, do most humbly lay this hearty and sincere Acknowledgment of Your Majesties Princely Care and Protection of the Protestant Religion, the Liberty of the Subject, and the wholesom Laws of the Kingdom, at Your Majesties Feet. The great Immunities and Priviledges which Your Majesties Royal Ancestors have been pleased to invest this small Corner of Your Dominions with, and which is happy in being situate upon Your famous Port of Milford, in that it once received a Victorious King for the beating down of Usurpation and Tyranny: We acknowledge 'tis not only these favours of Your Illustrious Predecessors which incourage us to this late (though truly Loyal) Addres, but the sad reflecting upon these dismal Times, in which through the licentiousness of an Headstrong People, the greatest Champion and Defender of the Faith was unlawfully Judged, inhumanely Sentenc'd, and most barbarously Executed: We shall therefore still render to Almighty God our just and due Thanks for Establishing a Prince in the Throne of his Ancestors, whose Courage and Policy have hitherto secured us from the Power of Foreign Invasions, which have so much threatned us, have blown up and countermin'd the deepest and most hellish Works and Contrivances of a Bloody and Antichristian Church, and have temper'd and calmed the Tempestuous Resolutions of a Giddy and unsettled People, who, possess'd with needless Fears and Jealousies, have been almost fomented to an open Rebellion. To Your Majesty we owe the price of our Redemption from that insupportable Bondage under which the best of Your Majesties Subjects had for a long time groaned and languished. To Your Majesty we owe the Refining of that Religion, which now, for its purity, is envied and admired: The Church truly flourishing under the Protection of so great and Gracious a Nursing Father: The Church which in those black and terrible days of Rebellion, was trampled on and defil'd by the Rabble, whose Banner carried the plausible Motto of Reformation and Liberty.

We furthermore Your Majesties Obedient Subjects, do from our very Hearts abhor and detest that damnable Association, too near of Kin to the Solemn League and Covenant, and promoted by the same Interest and Engines as that was. As we have hitherto, so still shall we heartily pray that Almighty God would be pleased to bless Your Majesty with length and prosperity of days, and never divert the Stream of a true and Lineal Succession, but let it run in its proper Channel as long as the Sun and Moon shall endure. And lastly, from that indelible Copy of Loyalty which is writ in the Hearts of every one of us, our Hands shall Subscribe our selves Your Majesties in all Obedience to the utmost of our Lives and Fortunes.

We the Mayor, Justices of the Peace, Common Council, Sheriff, Bayliffs, and principal Burgesses of the said Town and County of Haverford-West, do in all things Concur and Agree with the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury in this Abhorrence and Addres.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

WE the Mayor, Steward, Magistrates, Arch-Deacon of Cornwal, and the Inhabitants of Your antient Corporation of Portbyhau, alias West-Looe, being deeply sensible of the Benefits we have received under Your Majesties Gracious Government, since Your happy Restauration, and earnestly desiring a long and happy Continuance of it in Your Majesties Person and Family: Having lately seen a Copy of an horrid Association, found among the Papers of the Earl of Shaftesbury, a Model of Sedition and Rebellion, and of a most cursed War, which though pretended to secure our Religion and Liberties, would, if it had succeeded, without the intervention of God's peculiar Providence, have utterly Destroyed them, and reduced this long Flourishing Kingdom into Confusion and Anarchy. We should esteem our selves the ungratefullest of all Your Subjects, did we not declare to Your Majesty, and the whole World, our Abhorrence of all such Traiterous Confederacies and Associations, as Detestable to us, as that Solemn League and Covenant, which has once miserably Ruin'd the Nation; most humbly beseeching Your Majesty to assure Your Self of our constant readiness for the Future, to oppose all such damnable Designs, and the Contrivers of them by all means possible, and of our firm Resolution to defend and protect with our Lives and Fortunes, Your Majesties most Sacred Person, the antient Monarchy of this Kingdom, in its Just, Lawful and Lineal Descent, and the True Protestant Religion, as it now stands in our Church Established; most dutifully assuring Your Majesty, that whensoever it shall please You, out of Your Royal Wisdom, to Convene a Parliament, we will make Choice of such for our Representatives therein, as we shall know to be of the same Principles with our selves, prepared always to obey Your Majesty, and to promote the Good and Prosperity of the Kingdom

Be pleased, Great SIR, to accept this unfeigned Protestation of our Allegiance and Duty, which upon all Occasions, we will be as ready to declare by our Actions, as now by our Hands.

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of our Burrough, at the Law Court and Sessions of the Peace, held at the Guildhall of our said Burrough, on Wednesday the Tenth day of May, Anno Regni Domini nostri Caroli Secundi, Dei gratia nunc Regis Angliæ, &c. Tricessimo quarto.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Addres of the Bayliffs and Freemen of Your Majesties antient Corporation and Town of Kingston upon Thames.

Most Gracious and Dread Sovereign,

IT is not without the greatest grief imaginable that we see, that all the Mercies of God shewed to this Nation (since Your Majesties most happy Restauration, wherein we have been blest with the best of Kings, under whose Just and Easie Government we enjoy Peace and Plenty, Liberty and Property, to the Envy of all the World) have not yet totally Rooted the Seeds of the former Rebellion and Sedition out of the Hearts of many of Your Majesties Subjects; And because we would distinguish our selves from such, we presume in all humility, to approach Your most Sacred Majesty, and at Your Royal Feet to protest and declare from the bottom of our Hearts, that we detest and abhor all manner of Plots and Contrivances to alter any part of the Government either in Church or State, from what it is at present Established by the known Laws of this Kingdom, and that we abhor and abominate all Associations whatsoever any way tending to the same, and more particularly that produced upon the Proceedings against the Earl of Shaftsbury at the Old-Baily; and we do assure Your Majesty that we will always be ready in all Duty and Loyalty to the utmost of our Powers (with the hazard of our Lives and Fortunes) to support and defend Your Majesties most Sacred Person, Your Heirs and Lawful Successors, and the Government in Church and State as now by Law Established against all Practises and Attempts whatsoever; and this we do heartily and sincerely Testifie and Declare, without any Equivocation or mental Reservation whatsoever.

And having thus (as in Duty and Allegiance bound)

first
